With the American Army in France, Wednesday, April 17.—Twice in 24 hours an American company has assisted French troops in a neighboring sector to regain trenches temporarily taken by the Germans. The company was led by a captain who took his troops over the top in the face of the most violent machine gun and artillery fire. Each time he succeeded in driving out the enemy and inflicting heavy casualties and then strengthening the positions.

A most pathetic story from the American lines is that of a young corporal who was wounded fatally after fighting for four hours. A piece of shrapnel struck him in the head. He had a grenade in each hand. Giving them to his companion, he said: "I guess I'm done. Please write to my mother and tell her how it happened. But here—take these grenades and for God's sake don't waste them."

The corporal fell in a faint and died in a hospital the next day without regaining consciousness.

At one point on this sector there was a space of only 15 yards between the opposing trenches. A day before an attack, the Germans threw a note into the American trench. It read:

"What are you? Canadians or Australians?"

"Come over and find out," was the reply thrown back by an American soldier. The infantryman who related the incident added:

"I guess they know who we are now and they will not be likely to forget it for some time."

One lieutenant in a listening post with a small party of men was cut off from the remainder of the platoon in Friday's attack. He tried to send up rockets to signal an American barrage but the rockets failed to work. A private then volunteered to run back with the message. He passed through three lines of barrage fire without being harmed and delivered the message. The American gunners laid down a barrage immediately and saved the lieutenant and his party from the hands of a superior force of the enemy which was headed in their direction.

Commanders of units who participated in the several days of fighting last week in company with the French in the Apremont wood sector are finding it difficult to pick out men who especially distinguished themselves in the operation.

One commander said that every man acted like a hero and it was hard to choose the most deserving cases. One of the most popular men (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3.)

MANY NEW YORK
CITIES JOIN THE
DRY PROCESSION

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Albany, N. Y., April 18.—Recreation today of Tuesday's and Wednesday's local option elections in New York showed that although prohibition forces won out in a bare majority of the 39 cities voting, the wets carried the larger municipalities and retained more than 1,400 of the 2,132 licenses or nearly seventy per cent. of the total involved.

Revised returns early today from Geneva which had been in doubt threw into the wet column by a small majority. This made the line-up as follows:

Albany: wet; Auburn: dry; Batavia: dry; Beacon: wet; Binghamton: dry; Canandaigua: dry; Corning: dry; Cortland: dry; Elmira: dry; Fulton: dry; Geneva: wet; Glens Falls: wet; Gloversville: dry; Hornell: dry; Ithaca: dry; Jamestown: dry; Johnstown: dry; Kingston: wet; Little Falls: wet; Lockport: wet; Livingston: wet; Mount Vernon: wet; Newburgh: wet; Mount Rochelle: wet; Ogdensburg: dry; Oneida: wet; Oneonta: dry; Oswego: wet; Plattsburgh: dry; Port Jervis: wet; Rome: wet; Salamanca: dry; Schenectady: wet; Syracuse: wet; Tonawanda: wet; Watertown: dry.

Syracuse and Schenectady, the largest cities voting went wet by big majorities, ranging from approximately 12,000 to 2,500 respectively. Binghamton, the only other second class city affected went dry.

The total vote averaged 70 per cent. greater than that cast at the last gubernatorial election due chiefly to women's participation. The sale of intoxicants must cease on Oct. 1 in the cities which voted dry.

A COMMON CAUSENational Foreign Trade
Council In Session at CincinnatiDISCUSS BEST METHODS OF HELPING TO WIN THE WARCountry Had Decided Advantage In Its Control of All Metals

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Cincinnati, April 18.—Discussions of how best to help win the war as well as of preparedness of largely increased foreign trade relations following the war took up the sessions of the national foreign trade council here today. A C. Bedford, chairman of the council of national defense, in his talk assured the 1000 delegates gathered, that the oil men have forgotten their differences in the common effort to win the war and that men who for years were the keenest of business rivals are now working shoulder-to-shoulder.

Every producer has risked large amounts in drilling in the hope of increasing oil production and they will invest still larger sums," said Mr. Bedford.

"You must remember that following this war," he continued, "we will be called upon and it will be our economic part and duty to assist in providing for a cold, tired and hungry world."

In discussing "metals," E. A. S. Clarke, of New York, predicted that the advantage in having the largest quantity of metals most needed in the prosecution of the war—such as iron and steel, copper, lead, zinc, gold and silver—while our allies or the other neutral nations had similar sources for the supply of tin, manganese and other necessary metals, "must in the long run be a deciding factor in our favor as against the less-favorable situation of the central powers."

In discussing foreign trade after the war, Mr. Clarke advocated that the government consider establishing a separate administrative department with a cabinet member at its head in effect, a secretary of foreign trade, whose duty it would be to foster and assist in mobilizing the development and extension of the foreign trade of the United States.

REPORT HUNGARIAN
MINISTRY RESIGNED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Amsterdam, April 18.—The Hungarian ministry has resigned, a dispatch from Budapest reports.

The decision of the Hungarian cabinet was reached at a meeting yesterday morning at which Premier Wekerle presided. All the members of the cabinet were present except Count Szerecsenyi, minister of commerce, and Count Sichey, minister of court, who were absent from Budapest. After a short conference all the members present signed the document tendering their resignations.

A Copenhagen dispatch last night said Premier Wekerle had decided to resign owing to dissension in the ministry over the suffrage reform bill and that King Charles was expected to request him to form a new cabinet, excluding the ministers who oppose a compromise on the suffrage question.

BRITISH GUNNERS, STRIPPED TO WAIST, POUR DEATH ON HUN

British artillerymen working valiantly with their heavy guns.

With their backs to the wall the British have been nobly resisting the furious onslaughts of the enemy, and many dispatches have mentioned the heroism of their heavy artillerymen who have poured death into the ranks of the foe till their guns were red hot. The picture shows the British heavy guns and the heroes who serve them stripped to the waist and working desperately to mow down the enemy forces.

CANADIANS ACTIVE IN SHELLING THE
ENEMY POSITIONS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Canadian Army Headquarters, April 18.—All night long Canadian guns both heavy and light, have been active against the enemy positions, shelling hostile batteries, route, railways and dumps, while time after time hostile infantry positions assembly areas, and communications have been swept with a harassing fire. Indeed, artillery activity recently has been the main feature on the Canadian front. There have been constant duels between our own and the enemy batteries. A considerable amount of gas has been used.

Early this morning we carried out a small projector gas bombardment against the enemy positions, to which the Huns replied with gas shelling, but neither operation approached the magnitude of our heavy gas shell bombardment on April 8, in which over 9,000 shells were fired on hostile artillery positions. That gas bombardment was as successful as it was extensive, twenty-two out of thirty-two batteries engaged having been out of action ever since.

UKRAINE COUNTRY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, April 18.—In carrying out their plan to make the Ukraine an Austro-German colony, the central powers intend to dissolve the Ukrainian Rada and to install an Austro-German government, a report reaching the state department today said.

The Germans already have cut off completely communication between the Ukraine and Russia. It has been established, said the report that native officials are being replaced with Austro-Germans and that Austro-German money is being forced into circulation throughout the Ukraine.

The latest dispatches on the situation contain the statement that the arrest of all entente officers in the province has been ordered.

IMPORTANT UNITS OF FLEET ESCAPED

Washington, April 18.—All important units of the Russian Baltic fleet escaped when the Germans occupied Helsingfors, official dispatches received here today say. Most of the Russian naval craft had been withdrawn, probably to the naval base of Kronstadt or Viborg. A number of small auxiliaries were in Helsingfors just before the German occupation, however, and these may have been captured. They included submarines, destroyers and a number of trawlers.

POSSIBLY AMATEURS

(Special to The Advocate)

Granville, O., April 18.—An unsuccessful attempt was made last night to burglarize several business houses here. The burglars were either interrupted in their attempts or lacked the necessary tools. An attempt was made to force the back windows of the Ullman drug store and Akeley's place. Stanford's grocery was also visited and the back and front doors of the Morrow dry goods store had been tampered with. The discovery was made by Mr. Ullman after he returned from a concert in Columbus shortly after midnight.

Washington, April 18.—New subscriptions of $107,000,000 reported to the treasury today sent the total Liberty loan pledges over the billion mark to $1,059,759,000.

"These figures," said a treasury statement, "while encouraging is unsatisfactory to the Liberty loan committee. The daily average still is short of what it should be if the $2,000,000,000 quota mark set for the country as a minimum is reached, or exceeded."

From the Minneapolis reserve district, which started its campaign Monday came word today that 99 out of 314 counties have oversubscribed.

GERMANS HAVE NOT GAINED THE
DESIRED RESULTS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Ottawa, April 18.—Anxiety as to when General Foch will make use of the allied reserve, which it says exists but has not been called upon, is expressed in a dispatch from London to Reuters' agency here today.

"There is still anxiety as to when General Foch will make the decisive stroke, now that the British have stood four weeks of hammering by the immense German reserves, estimated at 420,000 men, in a fashion which led the French writers to describe the British armies as the wing of sacrifice," says the dispatch.

Experts do not endorse the opinion advanced, some quarters that the advance, critical in the northern theater has been definitely checked. It is agreed that the Germans have not achieved the decisive results aimed at, thanks to the extreme stubbornness of the British resistance.

"The battle, in fact, appears to have been following the course of the great series of German thrusts of October, 1914, which ended in Ypres and failure for the enemy. There was then no allied reserve. That reserve now exists and has not been used. There will probably be continuous fluctuations in the northern area for some time to come, but the salient fact of the fighting is the staying power of the British soldiers."

In Bailleul Sector Enemy Attacked Three Times During Yesterday's Engagement But Were Repulsed at All Points—Germans Bringing Up Fresh Divisions For Renewal of Assaults On British Lines—Six Heavy Attacks Made By Hun Invaders Between Bailleul and Ypres In An Attempt to Bend Back British Front Still Further—Review of the Latest War Developments

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, April 18.—Southeast of Kemmel hill, on the northern battle front the Germans pressed back the British line slightly but the situation was restored by a counter attack, the war office announces. During the night there was no change in the British front.

In the Bailleul sector the Germans made three attacks before noon yesterday and in each case suffered a complete repulse.

The Germans opened a heavy bombardment on the British positions on the southwestern part of the Yser battlefield between Locon and Robecq, during the night. The bombardment was still in progress at dawn today.

The statement reads:

"There has been no change on the British front during the night."

"The hostile artillery has shown great activity on the southern portion of the Yser battle front from Givency to East of Robecq. A heavy bombardment of our positions between Locon and Robecq was still continuing at dawn."

"Local attacks were repulsed by our troops yesterday evening in the Morris sector."

"More detailed accounts of the fighting of yesterday on the forest of Nieppe-Wytschaete front has been the severity of the enemy's losses. Southeast of Kemmel hill the German infantry attacked in three waves and at one point pressed back our line slightly. In this locality the situation was restored by a counter-attack and shortly after midday the attack had been repulsed at all points. In the Bailleul sector the enemy attacked three times before midday and in each case suffered a complete repulse."

"Our line yesterday evening was reported intact on the whole front."

HEAVY ATTACKS CONTINUE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

With the British Army in France, April 18.—The Germans brought up fresh divisions for the hard thrust which they made yesterday. Although the British were unable to hold Wytschaete and Meteren, which they had retaken by a brilliant counter-attack, they beat off the enemy elsewhere. The British maintained their line throughout the night.

A renewed heavy bombardment of

canal, at Givency and the Nieppe forest suggests the Germans contemplate another heavy drive in this region in the hope of taking Bethune and creating a new salient. All the areas back of this section of the front was sprinkled with gas shells throughout last night. At six o'clock this morning the bombardment was nearly of drum fire intensity between Locon and Robecq, where the enemy has tried repeatedly to advance his line to the canal.

An effort made by the four German army which holds the enemy's right flank to the sea, to drive in the front of the allies from the coast was extended yesterday to the Yser region held by the Belgians. At half past eight o'clock in the morning after an all night bombardment the Germans attacked on a front of four miles between Lagenmarck and Kippe.

The Germans gained a footing in the Belgian advance positions, but they were thrown out after a fight lasting nearly all day. The Belgians took 600 prisoners including many officers belonging to seven different regiments which represented one Bavarian, two Prussian and one marine infantry divisions.

Six heavy attacks were delivered by the Germans yesterday afternoon between Bailleul and Ypres in an attempt to bend back the British front still further and to create another dangerous salient in the Flemish marshes.

Kemmel hill was assaulted by three waves of Germans about one o'clock in the afternoon, but the enemy was thrown back with heavy casualties and a counter-attack completely restored the British line. Other attacks were broken by British machine gun fire.

HAIG REPORTS LINE INTACT.

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)

Field Marshal Haig today reports his line on the Yser battle front standing intact last night as it existed yesterday morning following the British retirement east of Ypres, no ground having been lost in the battling of yesterday despite the heavy German attacks through the entire period.

BAN PLACED ON FIRE WORKS BY STATE MARSHAL

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, April 18.—Regulations for the use of fire works on July 4th, which provide that under no circumstances shall sky rockets, Roman candles, toy balloons and other aerial displays be allowed were issued today by State Fire Marshal Alfred Fleming. His statement says his department has the co-operation of manufacturers, jobbers and retail dealers in the state. Police chiefs and prosecutors are called upon, not only to see that the federal, but also the state and municipal laws concerning fire works and explosives are obeyed and that the "ruining of the fire marshal is carried out."

All fire works projecting sparks a distance of five feet are barred except as to certain kinds," says the order. "The ordinary 'devil chasers' or other products which leave their base when fired are under the ban as are the ten cent vesuvius fountain. Any novelties such as sparklers, chinese fire crackers and small torpedoes will be allowed except that none shall be lighted or exploded within 25 feet of any dwelling or any combustible material. No 'salutes' longer than 2 1/2 inches will be allowed."

"As set piece will be allowed for display only when so charged that sparks will go no further than five feet, and when not fired within 100 feet of buildings or combustibles."

"In municipalities where ordinances prohibit all fire works, these ordinances should be enforced."

"All dealers in and users of fire works must see that they are acting in accord with all provisions and general rulings governing the control and license of explosives as provided for in the new federal law."

CANADA WILL KEEP UP FULL STRENGTH ON BATTLE FRONT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Ottawa, April 18.—Regardless of sacrifices Canada must keep her fighting divisions on the western front up to full strength, Sir Robert Borden, premier, stated today at a secret session of the house of commons. An official account of the meeting was made public here today.

Canada also must so organize her remaining human power as to maintain, and if possible increase agricultural production, Sir Robert said.

Speaking to members and officials of the house and the senate, the premier made a complete survey of the war situation, treating of the military position, supply and production of food stuff and shipping. He presented also a communication from Mr. Lloyd George sent especially for reading at this secret session. The text of this message was not made public.

Alluding to Germany's apparent demonstration to destroy the British army in France, Sir Robert presented detailed confidential information as to the strength of fresh forces which have been raised by each of Great Britain, France and Canada, in order to combat this offensive.

A German attack in full force upon the Canadian army corps must be expected, the premier said. "When this will come no one can say," he declared, "but in view of the strategic value of the position of the Canadians there can be no doubt that they must be prepared to meet any attacks launched by the enemy and the country must be prepared to provide the reinforcements to make good all the losses."

"The government has been in communication with the overseas military authorities," he said, "and as the result of the most careful consideration the clear conclusion has been reached that if the Canadian army corps is to be maintained as an effective fighting force additional measures must be taken. It must be recognized that the position is one of extreme gravity."

"Germany must be defeated and to this end Canada must provide all the assistance in her power. We must supply the men necessary to keep our divisions up to full strength no matter what casualties are suffered."

After Sir Robert's statement a discussion took place, participated in by Sir Wilfred Laurier, Sir Samuel Hughes and Major General Newburn, minister of militia.

BRITISH STAND FIRM AND GERMANS SUFFER A COMPLETE REPULSE

northern portion of the front, the Germans are turning their attention to the southwesterly sector of the battle field.

A heavy bombardment of the British positions here between Locon and Robecq was reported in progress this morning. The enemy is finding himself cramped on the southerly side of the wedge he has pushed into the British lines and seems on the eve of an effort to widen it out here.

Furthermore, at Locon, the Germans are only some three miles north of Bethune, an important railway center and at Robecq are within six miles of Lillers, a junction point on the railway from Bethune to Hazebrouck.

The British have been holding this sector of the front as strongly as they are the northwesterly edge of the salient, where they have held up the German attempt to advance further toward Hazebrouck, as was indicated anew in the repulse of fresh German attacks last night in the Merris sector, along the Bailloul-Hazebrouck railway. It seems not unlikely that the entire high command has forecast a possible larger German purpose to drive determinedly southward, to envelope Bethune and push on to a point where they can compel the British to fall back from Givenchy and the region north of Arras where the dominating Vimy ridge is the German objective.

Whether this is to be the larger German strategy has not yet been shown. The development of the enemy demonstration on the Locon Robecq line, however, will be followed with close attention in view of this possibility and its bearing upon the great struggle on the Somme front to the south, where the firm hold of the British on the Arras region and the line south to Albert has held up the enemy push on Amiens.

Undiminished in intensity the great battle in Flanders and south across the French border goes on. Having retired east of Ypres, the British are now putting up a most desperate resistance to the Germans menacing Ypres and Hazebrouck, the important supply base to the southwest. French troops have come to Field Marshal Haig's assistance and are fighting side by side with the British in stemming the enemy tide east of Hazebrouck.

During the past 24 hours the heaviest fighting has been along the line on a front of 15 miles from west of Neville to Wytschaete. The British took the offensive and regained Wytschaete and Meteren, six miles east-northeast of Hazebrouck. Wednesday, but the Germans in strong counter-attacks forced them to retire again. Along the remainder of the front the enemy threw wave after wave of attackers against the Franco-British defense, but it did not falter and the Germans gained nothing in payment for sanguinary losses.

Although the retirement east of Ypres was to be expected for strategic reasons the fact that it has been carried has caused sentimental regret. Langemarck and Passchendaele and Poelcapelle, which Berlin reports the Germans have occupied were scenes of desperate encounters in the hand won British advance of last summer and fall when they gained the entire Messines-Passchendaele ridge.

Correspondents report the British are retiring to prepared positions along or close to the line from which the offensive was launched in 1917. This would place the new line probably near Boesinghe, Wietje, Hooge and Hill No. 60, southeast of Zillebeke and about two miles east of Ypres. Berlin's official communication attempts to make it appear that the Germans gained towns on the old Flanders battlefield after heavy fighting. The British retirement was carried out Monday and British guns reaped a heavy harvest in the enemy ranks when the Germans penetrated the abandoned positions.

Wednesday the Germans gained no new ground from east of Merville to Wytschaete, but were compelled to use large forces in recapturing Wytschaete and Meteren. The German pressure east of Hazebrouck shows the enemy still desires the capture of this base in the probable hope of forcing a further retirement in the Ypres region.

How large the French forces are that have come to help the British has not been disclosed. Field Marshal Haig said last week that heavy French reinforcements were moving toward the battle front.

On the remainder of the British front and on the Picardy battlefield and French sectors, there has been no infantry activity. Belgian troops north of Ypres have repulsed German attacks and captured six hundred prisoners in ejecting the enemy from trenches he had occupied.

On the Lorraine sector American troops have penetrated to the third German line and are in unmolested possession of No Man's Land.

British merchant losses due to German submarine warfare show an increase for the past week. The total of ships lost rose from six to fifteen while the increase in vessels of more than 1600 tons was from 4 to 11. French and Italian losses show little change.

Former rivals now working in a common cause

Wheelwright, of New York. "As an article of direct commerce, export coal is rendering an important war-winning service," said Mr. Wheelwright. "In the bunkers of troop ships, transports, liners and traders to our allies it is rendering a divine but important war-winning service. And in the bunkers of neutral ships not subject to the regime of control impressed upon American vessels, American coal is producing a responsiveness on the part of the ship-owners to the requests of this government which has distinctly a war-winning value. And when the war is successfully concluded there will be opened up to America, in my mind, a wonderful opportunity to further expand her exportations of coal."

Later today the national foreign trade council committee on export control will submit a report, while tonight the council will be divided into four groups for discussions of the following subjects:

Group 1, banking facilities for foreign trade and investment; group 2, initiatory problems in foreign trading; group 3, commercial education for foreign trade, and group 4, co-operation in foreign trade.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR SERGT. SWINGLE

A number of relatives and friends outside of the city attended the impressive memorial services, which were held in honor of Sergeant Gray Swingle at the St. Paul's Lutheran church, Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The church was filled with friends of one of Newark's first sacrifices in the great conflict, Sergeant Swingle having been killed in action in France, March 28. A young man of the highest ideals, the addresses yesterday bespoke the esteem in which he was held, and lauded the cause for which he gave his life.

TROOPS ASSIST IN REGAINING THE TRENCHES

with the soldiers on this sector is the Rev. Des Valles, a Roman Catholic priest of New Bedford, Mass., who is living with the men in an official capacity, he having come to France as a representative of the Knights of Columbus.

When the attacks began Father Des Valles, braving the dangers of shell and machine gun fire, went to the front line to administer to the wounded. He assisted in dressing the man a word of cheer. He handed out cigarettes to the men who smoked.

"He's as game as they make them and every inch a soldier," said a dough boy, while other soldiers spoke of the inspiration furnished by the priest.

Another popular man is a young banker of Springfield, Mass., who was pressed into service as a stretcher bearer. He was the smallest man in the outfit and after several trips became so exhausted he was unable to hold the stretcher. He refused to give up and had his companions tie the stretcher to his wrists with rope so as to enable him to hold the stretcher on the journey from the front line to the dressing station.

American troops have taken over control of No Man's Land. Patrolling parties are making almost nightly visits up to the German wire entanglements without encountering any resistance.

A lieutenant and a party of 12 have made a five hour exploring trip penetrating to the German third line and making maps of machine gun and sniper posts and strong points without being seen by the enemy.

An artillery lieutenant in an observation post sighted a German field kitchen coming up to the enemy line. He gave his battery its position and the kitchen was destroyed with three shots.

Prisoners to work highway

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, April 18.—Fifty-one prisoners left the Ohio penitentiary today for Guernsey county, where they will work on the National highway. This is the second batch of prisoners sent to Guernsey county within the past three weeks.

Before leaving the men were gathered in the chapel at the prison where they were addressed by Governor Cox. The governor said that in working on the National highway the men were doing their bit for their country and at the end of their work "if the clemency board doesn't do its duty towards you, I will."

MEN CONGEST THE RECRUITING BOOTHS; EAGER TO ENLIST

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, April 18.—The flow of recruits from the mining districts of Wales to Cardiff continues freely and to relieve the congestion at the recruiting depot a general appeal has been made for persons to assist the recruiting officers. President Callaghan, of the Cardiff chamber of commerce, at the coal and spring exchange there yesterday, called for volunteers to assist in the work. He said the recruiting officers were virtually "snowed under" and were working all day and until late at night without being able to deal with all the men who had come forward.

THREW BRICKS AND LANDED IN POLICE COURT

Sid Johnson and Jim Stewart, negroes, decided to heave bricks through the glass windows at the home of Olivia Johnson, East Newark, last night, with the result that they faced Mayor Atherton in police court this morning.

Sid gave his residence as Memphis, Tenn., while Stewart said he hailed from Birmingham. Both were charged with being drunk and for malicious destruction of property. They drew fines of $5 and costs on both charges.

One drunk added to the sum total of offenders.

The Second-Hand Hatcher.

Buying second-hand incubators is, generally speaking, poor business. The cost of the machine is so small besides the value of the eggs which will be entrusted to it that there is no economy. Usually, in trying to buy and handle very equipment. On the say-so of a friend, or of a poultry keeper of known integrity, that a second-hand machine is in perfect order, it is to be bought, but bargains in this line of equipment ought not to be looked for.—Farm Life.

Watch for Head Lice.

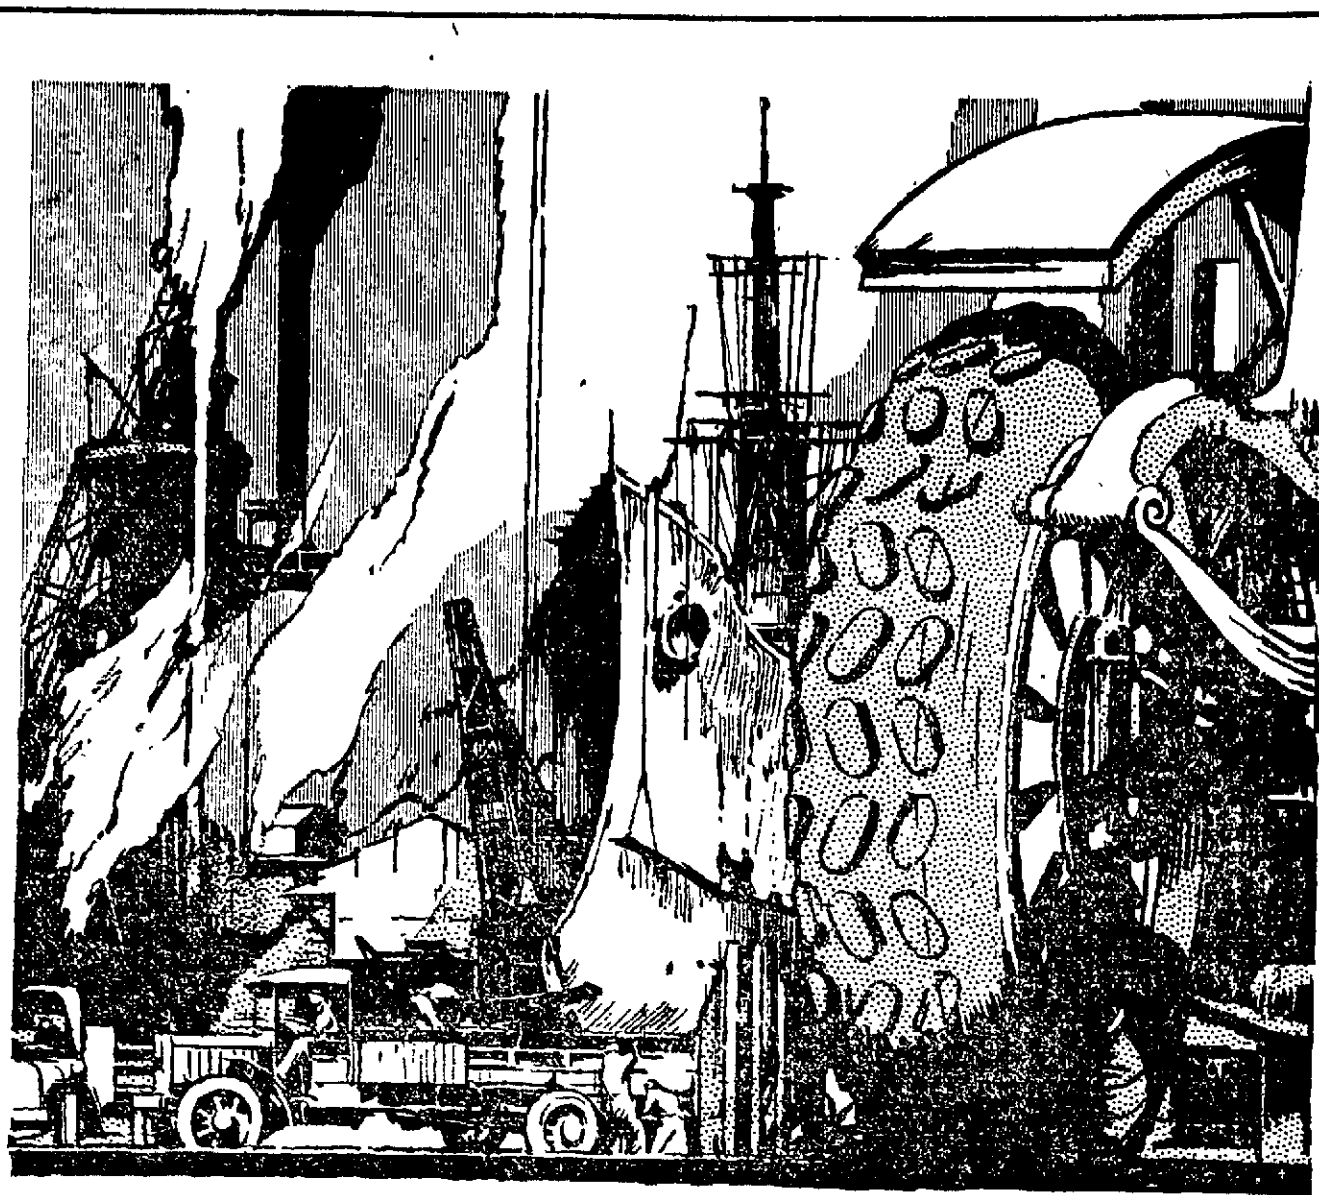

One great trouble with young chicks is head lice, with which they are apt to be infested. A thorough examination of the head and throat of every chick a day or two old should be made, and if any of them are found to be infested give the head and throat of the whole brood a thorough going with pure lard, which will put an end to the lice.—Farm Life.

Kerosene for Sealy Legs.

Here is a simple remedy for sealy legs in fowls. Take a small, deep can and fill it with kerosene. Dip the feet and legs in it up to the feathers, but do not wet the feathers, and hold them in it a second or two, but not longer. In a short time the scales will peel off and the legs will be in as good condition as though they had never been sealy.—Farm Life.

Liberty Bonds are the real weapons for Victory

We have made a start on the long hard road to Victory.

Our men are fighting at the front in France.

Our American industries have accomplished prodigious results in building up a war machine to furnish munitions and supplies.

But we have only begun.

We must do more and more.

This is not a war of armies but of nations in which every citizen must do his part.

Every worker in our industries is truly fighting in this war. Every man, woman and child who gives of substance and savings is adding to the national power.

The foundation of all our vast war-making machine is the Liberty Loan.

Money is needed to build more and more ships; to furnish food and guns and powder and transport and airplanes; to raise and equip new armies.

We must oversubscribe this Third Liberty Loan and do it quickly.

We must show the courage that is in us.

We must show a cheerful willingness to make sacrifices for our boys in the trenches.

WONDERFUL RECORD OF BRITISH AIRMAN; DOWNS 54 PLANES

London, April 3.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Every honor for valor that a British officer can gain has been won by Captain James Byford McCudden, the star British airman who has just been awarded the Victoria Cross. His other distinctions, in the order of their award, include the distinguished service order, a bar to the D. S. O., the Croix de Guerre, military cross, bar to the military cross and the military medal.

McCudden, who is now 23 years old, entered the British army as a bugler eight years ago. He went to France as a private in the original expeditionary force. Having had some experience in the air, he was pressed into service as an observer at Mons and gave valuable information of enemy movements during the retreat. From a sergeant he was promoted to a commissioned rank as an observer and quickly won fame for his handling of a machine gun in aerial fighting. Since he has had more than one hundred fights without ever having received a wound. Fifty-four German airplanes have been accounted for by Captain McCudden. Of these forty-two have been destroyed, nineteen of them on the British side of the lines. On two occasions the British star has destroyed four two-seater enemy airplanes on the same day, and on the last occasion all four machines were destroyed in the space of one hour and thirty minutes.

(Associated Press Telegram) Cleveland, April 18.—At least 100 persons were here today to attend the annual meeting of the Ohio Confectioners' club. The session will last until tomorrow night. All phases of candy making will be discussed and steps may be taken to curtail the use of sugar. Labor shortage and the national food administrator's ruling on Ohio allowances are also expected to be considered.

The election of officers will be held tomorrow morning. C. E. Underwood of Dayton is president.

BELIEVE THIS DISTRICT WILL EXCEED QUOTA

(Associated Press Telegram) Cleveland, April 18.—The fourth federal reserve district continues to hold the lead over the rest of the country in communities over their quotas in the third Liberty loan campaign. Two hundred and 91 honor flags have been awarded in the district. Twenty-five counties of the 169 have oversubscribed their quotas.

Honor flags awarded by areas follows: Toledo, 99; Cleveland, 77; Cincinnati, 75; Pittsburgh, 19; Lexington, Ky., 11; Columbus, 10. Total subscriptions in the district up to last night amounted to $95,939,950, which is a gain of $10,914,250 over the previous figures.

Although managers of the campaign in Columbus refuse to give out the figures it is believed the quota of $6,206,000 has been exceeded. Reports from Cincinnati indicate that 29,542 subscriptions have been secured there with an official total of $17,611,150. Predictions were made that the $20,000,000 quota would be reached by Friday noon.

Hancock, Crawford and Columbus counties have passed their half-way mark. According to unofficial reports, Trumbull county expects to reach its quota by tomorrow night.

STEEL WORKERS OF NEW GLASGOW OUT ON STRIKE

New Glasgow, N. S., April 18.—Three thousand men, mainly steelworkers, were idle today in a general industrial strike that threatened to spread and include 2000 miners employed in nearby colliers. The strikers demand higher wages, improved working conditions and full recognition for the Federation of Labor. War-work is affected by the strike, the shops closed including those of the Nova Scotia Steel company, the Eastern Car company, the Scotia Shipyard, the J. W. Cummings company shell factory, and the Albion machine shops.

Already the miners in the Greenwood, Colburne and Thorburn colliers who are members of the Federation of Labor have joined the strike and union leaders said men at Stellarton and Westville would walk out unless the differences are adjusted. This would bring the number up to 5000.

An offer by the government of a board of conciliation to settle the strike was refused by the federation, which demanded appointment of a royal commission to investigate the troubles, or the taking over of the plants by the government.

HE'D BETTER CROSS HIS FINGERS IF HE'S REALLY SUPERSTITIOUS

The most recent picture of the German crown prince at the front seems to show that he is superstitious, as he has a horseshoe attached to his car for good luck. SUCH ATROCITIES EXPECTED OF THE INHUMAN BUTCHERERS

(Associated Press Telegram) Moscow, Wednesday, April 10.—Because the peasants in the village of Novoselki, in the government of Mohilev resisted and armed requisition of money by German troops and killed an officer in the resulting scuffle, the Germans burned the village and from machine guns placed around it they fired upon the inhabitants, including women and children who tried to escape, killing many of them.

A protest against this atrocity has been communicated to the German government by M. Tchertcherin, Russian minister of foreign affairs. The minister also mentions the fact that the Germans killed an entire family, even the little children when they were informed that one member had participated in guerilla warfare against them.

"The Peoples Commissary of Foreign Affairs," the protest concludes, "expresses a feeling of the deepest indignation and most resolutely protests against such acts of violence as being unworthy of a cultured people and contradictory to the elementary principles of human society. It is hoped the German government will investigate thoroughly and punish the offenders."

AMERICAN AWARDED FRENCH WAR CROSS

(Associated Press Telegram) With the American Army in France, Wednesday, April 17.—Lieutenant George Patton, of New York City, of the American army medical corps has been awarded the French war cross for courage in treating wounded men while without a gas mask during a heavy bombardment of gas shells. The lieutenant found it was impossible to treat the wounded while wearing his mask. He took it off and continued to dress wounds until overcome by gas fumes.

PREPARING FOR FOURTH ISSUE LIBERTY LOAN

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, April 18.—First preparations for the fourth Liberty loan to be held next October or November were made today and consisted of an effort to save for war purposes the celluloid and steel which now go to the manufacture of Liberty loan buttons.

Frank R. Wilson, publicity director of the loan, wrote badge manufacturers for suggestions concerning a paper mache or pasteboard substitute for the present buttons, twenty million of which have been bought for the third loan campaign. Celluloid should be saved for explosives and steel for munitions, Wilson believes.

CLAY PRODUCTS INDUSTRY NOW ON WAR BASIS

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, April 18.—Eventual curtailment in the production of all building material was indicated in orders of the fuel administration published today cutting the manufacture of ten principal clay products from fifteen to fifty per cent.

The order, which will further restrict the country's less essential industries and will limit non-war building operations, provides for a re-arrangement and division of clay products manufacture and puts the industry on a war basis. The order also provides that parts of the plants affected will be converted for war industries and materials transportation will be made available for war production. Clay products and other building materials, the fuel administration's statement said, are a greater tax on transportation and fuel than any other commodities and reorganization of the industry is deemed essential.

The action of the fuel administration, which was approved by the war industries board, is regarded as a forerunner of a similar curtailment of virtually every industry not considered vital to the war program.

NOON MEETING HELD AT UTICA

A meeting in the interest of the sale of Liberty bonds was held at noon today at the Licking Glass Factory at Utica. George Hamilton and J. R. Fitzgibbon were the speakers. The men received the speeches well and the campaign for the sale of the bonds at the factory was greatly aided by this meeting.

Tonight Rev. G. B. Schmitt and Prof. J. A. Tait will address a meeting at Fallsburg. The Masonic quartette will assist with a number of selections. At the Liberty church addresses will be delivered by Prof. H. F. Moninger and Attorney Roderic Jones. Miss Emily Hamilton will sing.

The meeting scheduled to be held at the Bowling Green church on Monday night of next week has been changed to Tuesday night. The speakers will be Rev. L. C. Sparks and B. F. McDonald. The Masonic chorus will furnish the music.

KINDERGARTENS.

Congress has recently recognized the educational needs of little children by making an appropriation to the United States bureau of education, to enable it to promote kindergarten education in the several states and territories.

This act is timely, for our people are being rudely awakened to the need of better training for citizenship than our boys and girls are now receiving. They realize the urgent necessity of properly equipping our children for the tremendous tasks they will be called upon to perform after the war is ended.

The council for national defense says with regard to this subject:

"There are nearly 4,000,000 children in the United States who cannot receive the benefits of kindergarten training either because there are no kindergartens at all or not enough.

This suggestion: Interest yourself in this need of the very little ones and write to the bureau of education, Washington, for their material and that of the National Kindergarten Association affiliated with the bureau."

Training for citizenship cannot begin too early, according to the United States commissioner of education, who for months has been issuing, in co-operation with the National Kindergarten Association, the series of articles which this paper is printing, to provide better training for little ones in the home.

A drive is now on to have more kindergartens opened throughout the country and parents are circulating petitions to present to their boards of education. Has such a petition been started for your school?

The General Federation of Women's clubs, the National Congress of Mothers' and Parent-Teacher Associations, suffrage and labor organizations, are all deeply interested in this subject and great hopes are entertained that the drive will receive the hearty co-operation of local school authorities throughout the country.

"Over there" the boys are eager to get into the trenches while over here some of our people stay out the night the Liberty loan solicitor calls. Fortunately there are not many of that kind, just enough to put on exhibition as historical specimens.

How the nice baseball weather makes the old-time players think of the good old days on the village green, when they used to wallop the next town in a terrific battle by the score of 64 to 58. What!

The farmer who won't plant a full acreage because he is not sure of making money, is the same who will later be kicking very hard if the war is prolonged and the taxes keep high.

The kaiser persists that he must have a frontage on the English channel, so that never again shall little Belgium attack him.

Some people who can't prepare their gardens because it is too cool, will soon be unable to plant them because it is too hot.

While our farms lack labor, a lot of jail prisoners are still occupying their time carving their names on their cell walls.

ONLY ONE ANSWER.

(By William A. Ashbrook.)
To win the war we must have men and money.

Who is making the greatest sacrifice, the man who fights for our liberty and our freedom, or the man who buys Liberty bonds at 4-1-4 per cent?

When you have invested YOUR ALL in government bonds have you even then done one-tenth part what the boys are doing who are "over there," or are on their way? There ought to be no argument necessary to make the third Liberty bond issue over-subscribed in 10 days. What will your stocks and bonds and other investments be worth should the kaiser win this war? Will it be Prussianism, or a free people and a free government? If you are a real American have you done your full duty? If you have, God bless you! If you have not, God pity you!

AFTER THE CROOKS.

Business people will all be glad to hear that the National Credit Men's Association has started an organized effort to stamp out trade frauds.

The general tone of business has greatly improved in recent years. Business men realize that they can't build up trade unless they deliver the goods straight and clean.

There is, however, a minority who make a living by fooling credulous people. They offer get-rich-quick propositions and fake mail-order schemes. They do not commonly operate in their home-town, as there would be come-backs. They seek business where they are not known.

The department of justice has its hands full now pursuing the German spies. The crooks should not be left free to ply their trade. Associations of business men perform a public service by taking initiative in the pursuit of these frauds. It will prevent simple-minded people from being robbed, and will promote the reputation of American business and methods in foreign countries.

THE RIGHT MAN.

The best news that has come out of Washington this week is the announcement that Charles M. Schwab has accepted the appointment as director general of the Emergency Fleet Corporation. "Ships will win the war," and Schwab will build the ships. As the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times expresses it: "The united hearts of America will bulge with new hope, while the sorely-pressed allies over-seas will take fresh courage from this assurance of fulfillment of promise. For Schwab is synonymous with things done."

Mr. Schwab is known as the wizard of Bethlehem. He has a wonderful executive ability and he has the happy faculty of doing the things he sets out to do. The fact that Charles M. Schwab has consented to undertake the very important work of shipbuilding is encouraging, indeed.

The people who worry about the tax they have to pay on excess profits, can always escape from their troubles by giving away the stock that is so much too profitable. There is now law compelling them to hold it.

There are still some persons who think the way to get credit for anti-submarine devices is to talk about them in the newspapers instead of going out and sinking some.

These people who won't eat good spuds may be the same ones who used to come in years ago and beg for "just half a potato with salt on it, please, mother?"

The people who lack the energy to run gardens will probably be the same ones who will have poor health next summer because they are indoors so much.

Three hundred burglaries a day in Berlin. The burglars have good authority for their idea that rights of property are only scraps of paper.

It's very kind for the Germans to line up in their boasted terrible mass formations, so our boys can shoot 'em down quicker.

More automobiles than ever this summer, but the pedestrian may be safe if he keeps in the house Sundays.

FEEDING THE ALLIES.

(Philadelphia Record.)
One of the finest things ever done by any nation is the cheerful change of its diet by America and the skimping of its food for the sake of its allies. We produce plenty of food for ourselves, we are saving food to help England, France, Belgium and Italy. We know there is a food shortage in Europe, particularly in wheat, and we are glad to divide our food with our allies.

And yet a good many things come from the British food administration of which we are entitled to have an explanation. No good is accomplished by ignoring them. All that is necessary the American people will do, but candor and consistency should characterize the statements issued on the other side and in Canada.

used on the other side and in Canada.

On July 21 last Lloyd George told parliament that "far from being starved by the U-boat campaign, Great Britain had already secured her food supply for 1917-18. Food production was increasing, and losses at sea were diminishing." On the same day Kennedy Jones, director general of food economy, said: "It is certain we will be able to start the new cereal year (August 1) with nearly seven months' stocks, which, together with the enormous potato crop coming into market will make next year's situation a mere question of whether in 12 months we will be able to import five months' supplies."

The problem of March was one of supplies. The problem now is merely that of prices and distribution." On the 16th of August, Mr. George repeated his confident assertions regarding the supply of food then in hand. But before the seven months were up, before six months were up, Lord Rhonda was frantically calling for 75,000,000 bushels of wheat, or he could not guarantee that the allies could hold out. Yet Sir William Goode, who succeeded Kennedy Jones and is serving as liaison officer between the British and American food administrations, said that England had 8,000,000 more bushels of wheat on hand January than it had one year earlier. On January 15 there were published the British commerce statistics for 1917, showing that the imports of grain and flour exceeded those of 1916 by $200,000,000. The increase of prices would account for a part of this, but not for nearly all of it.

On March 1, Edgar Crammond, in an address before the Society of Arts, said: "The United Kingdom is the only belligerent which increased its production of food during the year." News given out by our food administration on March 3 was that the amount of home-grown meat marketed in England had decreased about two-thirds since 1916, but on March 23 Sir William Goode told the American Luncheon club that "the United Kingdom is the only European belligerent country where the stock of cattle had not been seriously diminished."

The food administrator of Canada said in December that the Dominion's exportable surplus of wheat was only 110,000,000 bushels. A few days ago he grudgingly raised this to 112,000,000. Yet the official statement of the crop of 1917, over 233,000,000 bushels, and the local requirements can hardly exceed 65,000,000. Americans are perfectly willing to eat corn, but these discrepancies call for some explanation.

BUSINESS AGAINST PROFITTEERING.

(Chicago Herald.)
None of the acts of the United States Chamber of Commerce will awaken more sympathy than its strong declaration against profiteering. The business men of the country through their representative organization affirmed their desire to see undue profits eliminated. They backed both price-fixing and excess profits taxes in order to prevent the development of this evil.

This is a relatively new position, but it comes out of the depths of the modern conscience. During the Civil War there was little objection to profiteering. It was hardly understood. In fact, war conditions added to natural consequences of a then unrecognized development of a new industrial system, laid the foundation of many of America's great fortunes. As late as the Spanish-American war the prejudice against war profits was not dominant. The repulsiveness of riches coined out of war was not in truth generally accepted until early in this struggle British patriots sought to make the way of the profiteer hard.

New millionaires have admittedly been created in this country and in Europe by war contracts. Undue profits have, however, been increasingly scarce. The countenances were built at a cost of $15,000,000, with an average profit of only 3 per cent. Other government work has been accomplished with similar economy. The real opportunity of the war profiteer has been found in the less important and less conspicuous fields of speculation. Thus it was reported that one of the great Austrian families has secured vast riches through a monopoly of prunes. In Germany and in Austria generally, however, the antipathy to profiteering seems to be less potent than it is in allied countries.

Every class in America is now opposed to profiteering. Congress should watch the situation as carefully as possible, and if facts indicate that abnormal and unreasonable war profits are being taken the present revenue acts should be amended. Profiteering today is an unforgivable crime against the nation.

LAW AGAINST LOAFING.

(Ohio State Journal.)
New York has enacted an anti-loafing law. It proposes to make professional loafers work. It is a great drag on the country to have so many loafers about, living off the substance of the people and making no return for the privilege. We seem to forget the command of the Bible: "In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread," not in the sweat of some other man's face, which seems to be the usual construction, but of thy own. The New York law is in line with the Scriptures, and if the whole country would come to it, the nation would be stronger and happier. A mere loafer, who does nothing for his living but hang around, is an enemy of his country. It is well that public sentiment should be expressed in law against him. Sometimes a man may not help his loafing, but then he should keep it off the streets and away from saloons where the dishonorable habit may prove contagious.

Not the Kind Expected.

AIRPLANES.

(New York Times.)
It will profit nobody if the report of the senate committee on military affairs about our failure to produce airplanes for war service is treated merely as a contribution to the files of the document room. The report reveals what the committee very temperately describes as a "gravely disappointing situation." We need not dwell upon the details of the conditions the committee found to exist. The disappointment to the country will not be softened by anything contained in the minority report signed by three Democratic members of the committee. They merely set up in palliation of the shortcomings in airplane production the very great difficulties encountered in the work. In time of war men must be found who can overcome difficulties.

The important thing now is to end the country's disappointment, to win success where the record thus far is largely one of failure. The facts are before congress, before the administration. The recommendation of the committee is that "the matter of production should be taken out of the hands of the signal corps entirely," that it "should be controlled by one executive officer appointed by the president and responsible to him." The recommendations and the report cannot be ignored. The matter is far too serious for any further exhibition of "war department's loafing" with persons possessing information based upon experience to which the committee report refers as one of the causes of failure. Mistakes have been made, very serious mistakes, that cannot be denied. They should be frankly admitted and promptly corrected. That is the best way out of a pretty bad situation. That way will best satisfy the country. It is the best way to hasten the production of airplanes for use of American soldiers in France.

BACK FROM EUROPE.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
Newton D. Baker returns from Europe with a far better understanding of the war department's problem than he could have obtained in any other way. The result ought to be an immediate speeding up, an immediate turning up and tuning up, of all government agencies concerned in the conduct of the war.

The difficulty of visualizing a conflict of this magnitude at 3,000 miles distance has been felt by thousands. Certainly, it has been apparent to those upon whose official shoulders rests official responsibility. Wisely Mr. Baker decided that he could best serve the cause by this tour of inspection and inspiration; wisely the president, concurred in the suggestion.

During the secretary's absence the situation at Washington has improved to some extent. Some of the pressing problems of reorganization and readjustment have been solved; there has been a gradual working toward more speed and increased efficiency. But there is still ample room for improvement. In particular, congress obstructs. Legislation urgently needed to make America a real contender for democracy is allowed to languish while congressmen of both parties talk politics. While the minds of loyal Americans are on the battlefields of Flanders, the minds of these senators and congressmen are on next Nov. 5. With fresh inspiration for the cause, brought back by Mr. Baker, it may be hoped that Americans will be able to impress upon their congress the folly of further obstruction and the need for action. This should not be too much to expect.

Spirit of the Press

Military Training.
"It is foolish to underestimate your enemy," said Gen. Wood in his speech at the members' conference of the Chamber of Commerce. The Germans are thoroughly trained soldiers, ably led, thoroughly equipped. They are brutal in their methods, beastly in their policies, he said, but they are brave fighters, and behind them, he insisted, is the strength and courage and spirit of the German people. We have lost a year in preparation that should not have been lost, that would not have been lost, if we as a people had recognized before the value and necessity of being ready, mentally ready, for war. Whatever may be thought of the possibility of putting an end to war America has learned a lesson that convinces us that hereafter we must take no chances. We shall strive for peace in the future with all our hearts, but we shall never again be unprepared through lack of training to meet any enemy that may arise.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Stop Sneezing.
If there are those who think we are going a little too far in sanitation through efforts to prevent sneezing, all that need be said is that all science and modern experience are against them. Over 1,000,000,000 destructive germs may be found in a drop of mucus which we constantly secrete when we have "colds." These are more dangerous than enemy bombs, because they are insidious. The traveler in South America or Africa who has the slightest sign of a cold is not permitted contact with the natives. To sneeze in the Amazon valley is to make you a man marked for trouble. It should be so here.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Folly of Compromise.
A Vienna Socialist newspaper suggests that the allies might be satisfied in the west and Germany might consider itself indemnified by its gains in the east. But the British government has announced plainly that it would make no peace at the expense of Russia, and the President's speech in Baltimore leaves no doubt that America will not compromise this war and allow Germany to come out of it with more territory and more population and more resources, and more power to do harm than when it entered it.—Philadelphia Record.

Muzzle Chafes the Hun.
It is only natural that leaders of some of the German-American societies in this country should be perturbed over the crusade that is being made against the German language in this country. It would be foolish and unjust they claim, to place a ban on the German language at the meetings of these societies, since only a small minority of the members know enough English to take part in the discussions were they compelled to use that tongue. Most of the Germans have been in this country quite long enough to know the language, and they would have known it had they sought honest assimilation instead of seeking to boost the fatherland.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Milady's Boudoir

The Perfect Throat and Neck.

Many women think it is incumbent upon them to paint and powder to make fair the skin of the face. powdering it to a ghostly whiteness. Yet the skin of the neck and throat is left alone, and often a dark streak is allowed to appear above the V shaped or round neck. It seems a pity that such necks are allowed to be viewed, when the remedy is so near at hand. Any woman who will, may have an attractive appearing throat, so long as her age is on the sunny side of 50. The too thin neck hints of ill health, but the proper exercises will help to round it out and make it symmetrical. These exercises consist of the slow and gentle rolling of the head around from right to left several times and then in reversing the motion. Now bow the head far forward and far back, leaning to the right side and then to the left. These movements, taken slowly and gently, night after night, will develop the unused tissue which causes the neck to lack roundness.

After the exercises the flesh should be well scrubbed with hot water and soap, carefully and thoroughly massaged with cream for at least ten minutes, the cream removed and, then, cold water applied to the glowing surface.

The correct massage necessary to break down and remove fatty deposits around the throat, are best given by a professional masseuse, familiar with anatomy. Care must be taken to keep the muscles firm and not to reduce too rapidly. Hollows can be filled in by means of massage, brown necks can be bleached and sagging chins can be strengthened by massage and the double chin can be likewise reduced. So there seems little excuse for the unsightly neck and throat.

Woman Heads Red Cross Department of Nursing

MISS JANE A. DELANO, DIRECTOR OF THE DEPARTMENT OF NURSING OF THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

Miss Jane A. Delano, director of the Department of Nursing of the American Red Cross, has, for eight years, been building up what is now the largest organization of trained nurses in the world. This is the Red Cross Nursing Service, with its enrollment of over 18,000 graduate nurses.

In the past year it has provided about 8,000 nurses for military duty for the United States Army and Navy Nurse Corps and the United States Public Health Service, of which it is the reserve, and directly under the Red Cross; and it is calling for recruits from every State in the Union.

Miss Delano's professional preparation for her present service is a fascinating story. In 1888 when the terrible scourge of yellow fever broke out in Jacksonville, Florida, and so deadly was the epidemic that human beings seemed helpless against it, Miss Delano, then a young graduate nurse, appeared in Jacksonville with several trained nurses in her little company.

The infection of yellow fever through mosquitoes was not then known, but Miss Delano insisted on screening the windows of the hospital and neither she nor her nurses contracted the disease. They stayed until the fight against yellow fever was won.

Later, after having held the position of superintendent of the Training Schools for Nurses at Bellevue Hospital, New York, and the hospital of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, Miss Delano retired from active duty and went to Europe with friends, expecting to make her residence there for some years. In a few weeks, however, she received an official message asking her to return to take charge of the United States Army Nurse Corps and to organize the Nursing Service of the American Red Cross.

It was Miss Delano's unquestioning compliance with this patriotic call which led so definitely to her great accomplishment at the end of eight years of arduous service, given without compensation and with extraordinary devotion.

The Red Cross Nursing Service not only provides trained nurses for military duty and public health duty under the government, but has a large corps of women engaged in the Red Cross Town and Country Nursing Service, and large numbers of women available for service in time of public disasters.

A call may come in the morning from the Surgeon General of the Army, asking for a group of women, highly skilled in special surgery, contagious or psychiatric work for immediate foreign service. And these women, skilled through years of exacting training respond in the words of one nurse somewhere in France: "Thankful beyond words for the knowledge of how to care for the men who are ready to make every sacrifice of sight, or limbs, or independence, or life itself—to defend our country."

The Red Cross Nursing Service is recruiting 5,000 nurses for military service before the first of June.

is much less difficult and dangerous, for it is only natural for the opposite sexes to continue to play together in innocent pleasures when they grow older.

Our Boys and Girls

It is not possible to measure the harm that follows from young folks having no right provision for their amusement. The dance halls are not fit places for young boys and girls. The men who haunt these places may have money, but they always have low standards and a cheap attitude toward life, and needless to say, these standards are not apt to be on lines of pure and innocent amusement.

Right through life the wise mother recognizes her child's desire to find pleasure in the company of others of both sexes. Especially when adolescence is reached, do boys and girls like to be together, and if they get that companionship in a legitimate way it is all right, but if they get it in a furtive and illegitimate way, it is the ruin of many before they have hardly started on the journey of life.

When they have become accustomed in association in play through early childhood, the age of adolescence

Lucinda Jane Gutridge.

Lucinda Jane Gutridge, daughter of Elisia and Emily Gutridge, was born in Licking county, O., Sept. 28, 1855, died at her late home near Linville, O., April 12, 1918, aged 61 years 6 months and 14 days. She was united in marriage to Samuel Hupp, October 21, 1877. To them were born eight children—seven sons and one daughter, three sons having preceded her to the grave.

Mrs. Hupp was a devoted and faithful companion and mother in her home; was a believer in the faith of the Primitive Baptist, though never made a public profession of her faith in Christ, yet gave the evidence of having been born of the Spirit of God as she has sat under the preaching of the gospel, and an orderly life before the world. She bore her afflictions patiently, looking to death as the release from her sufferings. She expressed herself as being ready and willing to go to meet her loved ones in the Great Beyond.

The end came peacefully, dying with glory full in view, praying to the Lord: "Take me! Take me!" Her wish was granted. The blessed Lord has taken her to Himself to know suffering no more, and to forever dwell in the presence of God and His holy angels.

"Farewell, dear friends, whose tender care

Has long engaged my love. Your fond embrace I now exchange For better friends above."

She was a devoted and faithful wife and companion; a kind, affectionate, indulgent mother; a good citizen, and will be greatly missed.

She leaves to mourn her departure, a devoted and faithful companion, her affectionate and dutiful children: five granddaughters, three brothers, with a host of relatives and friends. But we mourn not as others which have no hope, believing our loss to be her eternal gain.

"Farewell, ye fleeting charms of earth:

Farewell, your spring of joy are dry.

I now seek another home— A better home on high."

The funeral services were conducted by Elder L. T. Ruffner of Millersport, O. A funeral discourse delivered from first Cor. 15:57, to a large concourse of people, after which her precious body was laid away in quiet Fairmount cemetery to await the resurrection of the just. 4-18-18

A Slacker in the Cellar

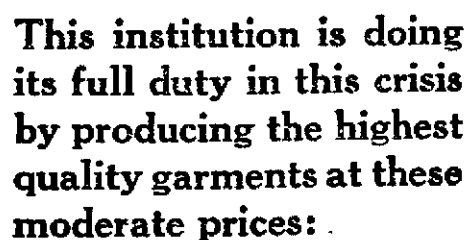

DON'T fly your flag from an upstairs window while you let a slacker hide in your cellar! If your furnace is choked and clogged with soot, it is a slacker and is wasting coal that should be making runs and shells to arm American soldiers. 5,000,000 tons of coal will be wasted in this country between now and June unless our furnaces are cleaned of soot now and kept clean the rest of the spring.

Now is the time to give your furnace a spring house-cleaning. Roll up your sleeves, get your wire brush, and clean out the slacker's accumulation of soot. Then keep your furnace slick and span inside, cleaning the passages every week.

After having rid yourself of the slacker in the cellar, you will be surprised to find how much less coal it will take to heat your house, and you can fly your flag with a much clearer conscience.

One Diamond For Every Three Cars In America

MOTORISTS are buying Diamond Tires in such numbers that over 2,000,000 are now in service—easily, one for every three cars in America.

This patronage is significant when you consider that the big demand for Diamonds comes from motorists who have used them in previous years and insist upon Diamond mileage again.

Such demand can be commanded only by tires of super-value.

A Diamond Tube is likely to outwear your car itself. Made in Gray and Red, in sizes to fit any make of tire.

SAYS NEIGHORLY FEELING IS DAILY GROWING STRONGER

The Zanesville Signal in its account of the opening sale of tickets for the Elk minstrel in that city said:

"The neighborly feeling which is daily growing stronger between Newark and Zanesville, received another good boost Tuesday, when the Newark lodge sent down reservation for 50 seats for the Thursday performance. They are coming down in automobiles and will all sit together on the right of the house, Cambridge and New Lexington are also sending in delegations for the minstrels, but not so many as the boys from Licking."

"The whole performance goes merrily along without a flaw, but Manager Stanton insists on perfection and is getting the little details all ironed out. The J. C. Cooper stunt from Newark, and 'Baby Ruth' from Mansfield, will have their rehearsals Thursday afternoon. 'The Elks' will more than hold their own in the week which is crowded full of meritorious theatrical offerings."

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

New members of the Licking County $1000 War Savings Society: Ephraim P. Keller, R. D. 1, Hebron; Samuel Otting, 220 South Fifth street, Newark; S. W. Vermilion, Newark; Samuel Hamilton, Eden township; G. E. Patton, R. D. Hanover.

Supt. Walter F. Howell, supervisor of the public schools in the six townships in the northeastern section of Licking county, reports the purchase of $3300 worth of War Savings stamps by the pupils in his district. The following schools have already passed their year's quota: Pleasant Grove, Perry township (Eloise Johnson); Wilson school, Madison township (Darrell Wintermute); Brookside, Madison township (F. A. Vermilion); Trapp, Eden township (John D. Wilkin); Polk-stalk, Eden township (Miss Zora Heft, teacher).

Supt. Walter Howell has organized the teachers in his jurisdiction into a band of War Savings stamp boosters and the teachers in turn are making good headway in teaching thrift to the children. The children in turn are carrying the message home so that the parents and other brothers and sisters are learning the value of War Savings stamps and are buying in large numbers.

"Rabbit" Taylor, doorkeeper at the Auditorium, is doing a landoffice business with Thrift stamps these days. Mr. Taylor is having success in the work and takes special delight in selling a person his or her first stamp which he attaches to a Thrift card. Every 25-cent card that is started means $1 plus for the government, and it all comes back to the buyer after a while.

A man from Franklin township called at the headquarters of the Licking County War Savings committee yesterday and seriously inquired if the report were true that school teachers who are selling war stamps get a commission for their work. The fact is no commissions or salaries are paid to anybody connected with the Thrift campaign. Through the generosity of certain people prizes are to be awarded to school children who sell the most stamps, but no person obtains pay for work done in the campaign. Somebody has started the absurd report in the country that each district school superintendent is to receive $1000 for his services and that all of the teachers are being paid to sell war stamps.

Rev. G. B. Schmitt will give his illustrated war lecture at Kirtersville tomorrow night, and at the same time there will be given a short talk on war savings. Admission will be free, but everyone who attends the meeting must buy one 25-cent Thrift stamp.

Yesterday's War Savings stamp sales at the Newark postoffice exceeded $1600. The sale on Tuesday at the Newark office amounted to over $6600.

Stamp agents receive nothing. They are glad to render service to their country and at the same time they know they are offering the people a perfectly safe and splendid investment. They also realize the great benefit to the community that will come if the Thrift lesson is learned and applied.

Supt. C. P. Smith, of the Utica schools, reports sales of war stamps in his school district exceeding $6000. Supt. Smith's district is leading, but others are not far behind.

T. J. Evans, the Warden block druggist, is today giving one of his show windows to an attractive "trium" advertising War Savings stamps.

"W. S. S." backed by Uncle Sam, 1 per cent interest, compounded quarterly, or 4.27 straight interest, non-taxable, registered without cost and money-back, both principal and interest, whenever you want it by giving 10 days' notice. That is "war savings" in a nutshell.

"FLIM-FLAMMER" IS WORKING THE CITY

A short-change "artist," or in the parlance of the police, a "flim-flammer," is working the city. His method of operation is usually to seek out some person whom he imagines is either new in handling change, or who he believes has had little experience. He then approaches, purchases some trifling article, and lays down either a $5, $10 or $20 bill. After receiving his change he turns as if to walk away, then suddenly discovers he has the exact change for the article in his pocket, or else he decides he does not want the article and returns it and asks for his bill. It is then you want to be on your guard, for when he returns your change and you count up after he is gone if he has given you a $5 bill you are usually short $2. If it was a $10 bill you will perhaps be out $5, and if it was a $20 bill you will perchance be minus $10. Yesterday a well-known young lady connected with a picture theater was short just $5 after she had sold a dapper-looking young man a ticket and returned his $10 bill after he decided he did not want the ticket. Keep your weather-eye open for these gents. They are smooth operators.

POSITIVE PROOF

Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in Newark.

Because it's the evidence of a Newark citizen.

Testimony easily investigated. The strongest endorsement of merit.

The best proof. Read it: Albert H. Ridenour, stationary engineer, 88 Fleek avenue, says: "My back was weak and pained me, due I believe to a strain. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the trouble. My back is now strong, and I can go about my work without any fear of the weakness." (Statement given September 15, 1914).

Trouble Never Came Back. On February 7, 1917, Mr. Ridenour said: "I have never had any return of backache since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me in 1914. My opinion of Doan's is even more high today than when I recommended them before."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Ridenour had. Foster-McBura Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Thanks. A young clerk was called before the manager. Mr. Jones, of late your work has been very perfunctory. Just as he was going to ask for an explanation, the young clerk broke in:

Mr. Smith, I've been waiting here for three months now, and, though I have tried my best, that's the first bit of praise I have received. Thank you.

No, Ma'am, dear: a girl isn't necessarily a better just because some fellow told her so.

The man who buys a new suit of clothes now finds that he has to pay from 25 to 50 per cent more than he did last year. AN OHIO MUSICIAN COMPOSES GREAT PATRIOTIC SONG

One of the best and most popular of the new patriotic songs is a composition "We Will All Stand By You Uncle Sam," the words and music of which were written by E. Francis Buckmeyer, head of the Zanesville School of Music. It is a national march song and has come into instant favor wherever it has been heard.

The song is pronounced by musical critics as one of the best of the patriotic musical compositions of recent years. It has a martial swing and haunting melody, which account for its wide popularity.

Be patriotic and sing this song. At all music dealers or direct from the publishers by mail, 16 cents per copy.

Alkali in Soap

Bad For the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary multifid coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get multifid coconut oil at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

GROCCERS HELP IN 50-50 PLAN

SIGN PLEDGE TO CARRY OUT FOOD ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM.

POST CARDS IN STORES.

Explain New Wheat Ruling to Thousands of Customers—Insures Greater Food Saving.

Grocers of the nation have accepted enthusiastically the 50-50 basis for the purchase of wheat flour and are doing their utmost to explain the new regulation to the housewife. This ruling by the U. S. Food Administration requires each purchaser of wheat flour to buy one pound of cereal substitute, one kind or assorted, for every pound of wheat flour. It was necessary to restrict the use of wheat flour in order that the allies and our fighting forces abroad might be assured of an adequate supply of wheat to meet their vital needs. This supply must come from our savings because we have already sent our normal surplus.

Wheat saving pledge cards were forwarded by the Food Administration to all retail food merchants, and these are being signed and posted in stores throughout the country. This card states, "We pledge ourselves to carry out the Food Administration program. In accordance with this order we will not sell any wheat flour except where the purchaser buys an equal weight of one or more of the following, a greater use of which in the home will save wheat:

"Cornmeal, corn flour, edible corn starch, hominy, corn grits, barley flour, potato flour, sweet potato flour, soy bean flour, feterita flour and meals, rice, rice flour, oatmeal, rolled oats and buckwheat flour."

Some confusion has resulted on the part of the consumer in construing this "50-50" ruling to mean that an equal amount in value of substitutes must be purchased with wheat flour. This is a mistaken idea. The ruling states that the consumer in purchasing flour shall "buy at the same time an equal weight of other cereals."

One exception to this ruling is concerning graham flour and whole wheat flour, which may be sold at the ratio of three pounds to five pounds of wheat flour. This provision is made because approximately 25 per cent. more of the wheat berry is used in the manufacture of these flours than standard wheat flour.

Another exception is that concerning mixed flours containing less than 50 per cent. of wheat flour, which may be sold without substitutes. Retailers, however, are forbidden to sell mixed flours containing more than 50 per cent. of wheat flour to any person unless the amount of wheat flour substitutes sold is sufficient to make the total amount of substitutes, including those mixed in flours, equal to the total amount in wheat flour in the mixed flour. For instance, if any mixed flour is purchased containing 60 per cent. wheat flour and 40 per cent. substitutes it is necessary that an additional 20 per cent. of substitutes be purchased. This brings it to the basis of one pound of substitutes for each pound of wheat flour.

A special exemption may be granted upon application in the case of specially prepared infants' and invalids' food containing flour where the necessity is shown.

Some misunderstanding seems to exist on the part of consumers in assuming that with the purchase of wheat flour one must confine the additional 50 per cent. purchase to one of the substitutes. This is not the case. One may select from the entire range of substitutes a sufficient amount of each to bring the total weight of all substitutes equal to the weight of the wheat flour purchased. For instance, if a purchase of 24 pounds of wheat flour is made a range of substitutes may be selected as follows:

Cornmeal, 8 pounds; corn grits, 4 pounds; rice, 4 pounds; buckwheat, 2 pounds; corn starch, 1 pound; hominy, 2 pounds; rolled oats, 3 pounds.

These substitutes may be used in the following manner:

Cornmeal, 8 Pounds.—Corn bread, no flour; corn muffins or spoon bread, one-fourth flour or one-third rice or one-third hominy; 20 per cent. substitutes in whole bread.

Corn Starch, 1 Pound.—Thickening gravy, making custard, one-third substitute in cake.

Corn Grits, 4 Pounds.—Fried like mush, used with meal in making corn bread.

Rolls Oats, 3 Pounds.—One-fourth to one-third substitutes in bread, one-half substitute in muffins; breakfast porridge, use freely; oatmeal cookies, oatmeal soup.

Buckwheat Flour, 2 Pounds.—One-fourth substitute in bread, buckwheat cakes.

Hominy, 2 Pounds.—Boiled for dinner, baked for dinner, with cheese sauce.

Rice, 4 Pounds.—One-fourth substitute in wheat bread, one-third substitute in corn bread, boiled for dinner (a bread cut), as a breakfast food, to thicken soups, rice pudding instead of cake or pie, rice batter cakes.

Several grocers have stated that their customers who strictly observe the 11 wheatless meals each week find it necessary to buy substitutes in addition to those ordered under the 50-50 plan.

The average business man prefers a live town, but perhaps the undertaker isn't an average business man.

U. S. Must Cut Use Of Wheat by One-Half

America Consumed 42,000,000 Bushels Monthly.
From Now Until Harvest Must Use
Only 21,000,000.

RATION PER PERSON IS 1½ POUNDS
OF WHEAT PRODUCTS WEEKLY

Military Necessity Calls for Greater Sacrifice Here—Allied War Bread Must Be Maintained—Our Soldiers and Sailors to Have Full Allowance.

If we are to furnish the Allies with the necessary proportion of wheat to maintain their war bread from now until the next harvest, and this is a military necessity, we must reduce our monthly consumption to 21,000,000 bushels a month, as against our normal consumption of about 42,000,000 bushels, or 50 per cent. of our normal consumption. This is the situation as set forth by the U. S. Food Administration at Washington. Reserving a margin for distribution to the army and for special cases, leaves for general consumption approximately 1½ pounds of wheat products weekly per person. The Food Administration's statement continues: Many of our consumers are dependent upon bakers' bread. Such bread must be durable and therefore, requires a larger proportion of wheat products than cereal breads baked in the household. Our army and navy require a full allowance. The well-to-do in our population can make greater sacrifices in the consumption of wheat products than can the poor. In addition, our population in the agricultural districts, where the other cereals are abundant, are more skilled in the preparation of breads from these other cereals than the crowded city and industrial populations.

With improved transportation conditions we now have available a surplus of potatoes. We also have in the spring months a surplus of milk, and we have ample corn and oats for human consumption. The drain on rye and barley, as substitutes, has already greatly exhausted the supply of these grains.

To effect the needed saving of wheat, we are wholly dependent upon the voluntary assistance of the American people and we ask that the following rules shall be observed:

1. Householders to use not to exceed a total of 1½ pounds per week of wheat products per person. This means not more than 1½ pounds of Victory bread containing the required percentage of substitutes and one-half pound of cooking flour, macaroni, crackers, pastry, pies, cakes, wheat breakfast cereals, all combined.

2. Public eating places and clubs to observe two wheatless days per week, Monday and Wednesday, as at present. In addition thereto, not to serve to any one guest at any one meal an aggregate of breadstuffs, macaroni, crackers, pastry, pies, cakes, wheat breakfast cereals, containing a total of more than two ounces of wheat flour. No wheat products to be served unless specially ordered. Public eating establishments not to buy more than six pounds of wheat products for each ninety meals served, thus conforming with the limitations requested of the householders.

3. Retailers to sell not more than one-eighth of a barrel of flour to any town customer at any one time and not more than one-quarter of a barrel to any country customer at any one time, and in no case to sell wheat products without the sale of an equal weight of other cereals.

4. We ask the bakers and grocers to reduce the volume of Victory bread sold, by delivery of the three-quarter pound loaf where one pound was sold before, and corresponding proportions in other weights. We also ask bakers not to increase the amount of their wheat flour purchases beyond 70 per cent. of the average monthly amount purchased in the four months prior to March 1.

5. Manufacturers using wheat products for non-food purposes should cease such use entirely.

6. There is no limit upon the use of other cereals, flours, and meals, corn, barley, buckwheat, potato flour, etc.

Many thousand families throughout the land are now using no wheat products whatever, except a very small amount for cooking purposes, and are doing so in perfect health and satisfaction. There is no reason why all of the American people who are able to cook in their own households cannot subsist perfectly well with the use of less wheat products than one and one-half pounds a week, and we specially ask the well-to-do households in the country to follow this additional programme in order that we may provide the necessary marginal supplies for those parts of the community less able to adapt themselves to so large a proportion of substitutes.

In order that we shall be able to make the wheat exports that are absolutely demanded of us to maintain the civil population and soldiers of the allies and our own army, we propose to supplement the voluntary co-operation of the public by a further limitation of distribution, and we shall place at once restrictions on distribution which will be adjusted from time to time to secure as nearly equitable distribution as possible. With the arrival of harvest we should be able to relax such restrictions. Until then we ask for the necessary patience, sacrifice and co-operation of the distributing trades.

Great Wheat Stocks Isolated.

It's the shortage in ships that is putting the Allies and the United States on wheat rations. Great stocks of wheat are isolated in India, and Australia. At great sacrifice in ship space and use the Allies are forced to secure some wheat from Argentina.

On January 1, Australia had stored 100,000,000 bushels of wheat that was ready for export—but there were no ships. Then came the new crop with an exportable surplus of 80,000,000 bushels. Now Australia has approximately 180,000,000 bushels waiting for ships.

India, at the same time, had 70,000,000 bushels of wheat stored for export. During April 50,000,000 bushels more out of the new crop will be added to the pile.

Argentina closed the last shipping season with 11,000,000 bushels of wheat left in the stock available for export. The new crop will add 135,000,000 to the left over.

It is not a problem that the wheat does not exist in the world—it is entirely a problem of shipping, which has thrown on America the obligation of dividing our stock with the Allies.

ALLIED FOOD SHIPMENTS REACH LARGE TOTAL.

A general idea of the quantity of food sent to European allies by the United States from July 1, 1914, to January 1, 1918, is given by figures just announced by the U. S. Food Administration. In that period the United States has furnished complete yearly rations for 57,100,933 people. In addition there was enough extra protein to supply this portion of the diet for 22,194,570 additional men.

The total export of wheat and wheat flour to the three principal allies is equivalent to about 284,000,000 bushels. Pork exports for the 3½ years amounted to almost 2,000,000,000 pounds. Exports of fresh beef totaled 443,484,490 pounds. The amount of food exported to Russia is negligible compared with that sent to the western allies.

BUY YOUR COAL NOW

People in a position to know say that fuel conditions will be as bad next winter as they were last. This is why the government and the fuel administrators are urging the people to lay in their winter's supply as soon as possible.

If you cannot take your winter's supply at once order what you will need for the winter and have deliveries made to suit your earliest convenience. This is the spirit and essence of THRIFT. It is patriotic as well.

The Black Beauty Coal company can take care of several more customers with a fair degree of promptness NOW. We may not be able to do so after the lake trade gets in full swing, but will do the very best we can.

Because of long hauls to the lake and railroad requirements as well, coal will not be so easily obtained. We are getting our coal from a mine that is producing splendid and clean domestic lump and giving excellent satisfaction.

Remember, delays are dangerous. So phone or call upon The Black Beauty Coal company at once—35 Cambria street, Automatic 6043, or Bell 831-X. 4-18-th-sat-tu-3t

After the minstrel tonight all visiting Elks in the city will be entertained at the club rooms with a luncheon and musical.

An Attractive Blanket.
A wolen convalescent blanket, knitted by the ladies of the Colonial Sewing club, is on exhibition in the window of The Sperry-Harris company. The center of the blanket shows the French tri-colors of red, white and blue, while the border is of grey. The blanket makes a very attractive appearance and will soon be sent to France.

One Hundred Per Cent.
Every couple of the Kresge 5 and 10-cent store has purchased a Liberty bond and all the employees have invested some money in Thrift stamps. The store rates as 100 per cent patriotic.

GRANVILLE

(Special to The Advocate.)

Granville, O., April 18.—Movie patrons at the opera house are enjoying, besides some exceptionally fine pictures, a series of splendid war campaign speeches, short, crisp and catchy, which are presented between plays. Last night the women's committee of the Council of Defense sent its first speaker, Miss Fred McCollum, who spoke for three minutes before a packed house on the vital importance of saving the wheat and using the substitutes. She delivered the gist of the telegram received yesterday morning at Newark headquarters from Ohio's food administrator, asking that there be a special drive made to use potatoes in every way possible, thereby saving a loss of 2,000,000 bushels in Ohio alone, and at the same time saving hundreds of bushels of wheat. She said that at this time a request from the government should have all the force of a military command on every patriotic individual. Her appeal was eloquent, though brief.

It was followed by a most forceful talk on the Liberty loan drive by Dr. H. R. Hundley, whose plea was for greater conservation and patriotism in making these subscriptions. He said that at the beginning of the war the term "sacrifice" expressed the utmost contempt for the man who failed to do his whole duty, but that today there is a word expressive of even greater odium and that word is "profiteer." He urged that every dollar whether given or loaned to the government be devoted to the sole cause of liberty and that every man and woman stand ready to dedicate their all on the altar of world freedom.

From the public schools comes a report of interesting activity on the part of both pupils and teachers. The examination for the first period will be given in all the grades on Friday afternoon. Cards will be given out on Tuesday or Wednesday of next week and parents are urged to give their careful inspection before signing and returning to the teacher.

The high school oratorical contest was held in the high school room on Monday afternoon to select a representative for the county contest which will be held in Newark on May 2—and the following program given:

Piano duet—Mary Frances Deming and Katharine Howe; "America, a Beacon of Light of Peace" by Gabriele d'Annunzio—Lucy Draper; "A Struggle Between Two Worlds" by Take Jonesen—Helen Beeny; "The Southern Soldier," by Henry W. Grady—Nita Collins; "Why We Are Fighting in Germany," by Franklyn K. Lane—Ruth Holler; "The Glory of France," by Paul Deschanel—Edgar Pendleton; vocal solo—Ruth Williams. Brent Griffin was presiding officer, with Prof. Alden and Wiley of the Denison faculty and Miss Clark as judges. Edgar Pendleton was awarded first rank, and will therefore be the Granville representative at Newark. Ruth Holler was second, and will be the alternate. The ranks of the other three were equal, and the rank of all was of a high order.

Twenty-one students made a grade of 90 per cent or above in the local spelling contest and are eligible to enter the county spelling contest to be held in Newark May 20.

The pupils of the schools are buying Thrift stamps every day, and the school has already bought more than its years quota.

Prof. L. I. Shaulis of Denison addressed the teachers of the public schools on Tuesday afternoon on the subject of "Society, Its Origin and Development."

The high school class in German sent a petition last Friday to the board of education through Supt. Cockayne asking that German be dropped from the course of study at once. The board held a special session on Saturday and voted to grant the request. For the rest of the year the class will study publications of the national committee on public information.

Prof. Theodore Johnson of Denison will address the public school pupils at chapel Friday morning.

Lieut. Wilkie Moody is on leave from Camp Sheridan and spending a few days with his sister, Miss Grace Moody and with college friends in Denison.

The King's Daughters met in their rooms Monday evening and enjoyed a delightfully planned evening. In addition to the war work which never is omitted these days, there was a special program which opened with devotional exercises by Mrs. Alma Tight, Bible study by the president, Miss Lily Jones and included two piano duets by Mary Frances Deming and Katharine Howe. Reading by Mrs. Parrish and an appeal for the Liberty loan and for wheat conservation from the women's committee, Council of Defense, presented by Miss Lily Jones, who invited free discussion of these topics.

At least 25 Granville attended the Galli-Curci concert in Columbus last night. Carl Weiant's bus was filled and several seven passenger cars were in evidence. Postmaster and Mrs. John Geach had as guests in their Packard car Mrs. Ogilvie, Mrs. Clemons, Miss La Ferre, Miss Slack and Miss Howland.

Miss Minnie Jones, a member of the executive committee of the township branch of the Council of Defense and also of the department of women's industries, spoke before the high school Y. W. C. A. yesterday on the subject of women's utility in war, and great interest was aroused even among the younger girls.

HIGH SCHOOL MUSICAL WAS BIG SUCCESS
(Special to The Advocate.)
Kirkersville, O., April 18.—A joint musical between the Pataskala and Kirkersville high schools was cleverly executed at the school auditorium in Kirkersville, Wednesday evening, that totally eclipses anything of the nature ever attempted in the local field. Prof. George Smith has received his reward of his labors of the last two years by the fine manner that the school children conducted themselves through the program.

The most pleasant and surprising feature of the evening was the positive proof in the rapid development of the latent talent in the youth that few persons ever dreamed of its presence.

To comment on a single number would not be fair to the whole. To sum up the entire entertainment we can only say, it was the largest treat that the community has ever had along musical lines. The same program will be repeated at the schoolhouse in Pataskala this evening. The numbers will be as follows:

Piano Duet—"On the Race Course"
Irene Emswiler, Viola Kinnison
Chorus—"Hark! The Lark!"
Vocal Solo—"Springtime"

OH! THAT AWFUL BACKACHE IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

An unhealthy body, and the unhappiness and misery which follow, may be prevented by ordinary judgment and care. Keep your stomach and kidneys in shape and you will have good health. The kidneys' work is to throw off the poisonous matters which enter the body. If they perform this work regularly and automatically the other organs will take care of themselves. Diseased conditions of the bladder or kidneys are indicated by nervousness, sleeplessness, that tired, worn-out feeling, dizziness, nausea, backache, lumbago, rheumatism, pain in the lower abdomen, many so-called "female troubles," severe pain and discomfort when urinating, bloody, cloudy and stringy urine too frequent or suppressed passages. All these are nature's signals to warn you of diseased kidneys or bladder, which may lead to fatal Bright's disease. Don't wait until the danger is upon you. Go to your druggist at once. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They are made of the pure original, imported Haarlem Oil, the kind your great grandfather used. About two capsules each day will keep you toned up and feeling fine. Money refunded if they do not help you. But remember to ask for the imported GOLD MEDAL brand in sealed packages—Advertisement.

PHYSICIANS TREATMENT FOR THROAT, CHEST AND LUNG TROUBLES

You Just Rub it on Over Throat and Chest—Relieves by Inhalation and Absorption.
Simply apply a small quantity of Famous Forkola over the throat, chest and back, covering with a warm flannel cloth. The body heat releases the ingredients that are inhaled in the form of vapors while the penetrating oils and fats are quickly absorbed through the pores, healing and soothing the tired, aching throat and chest. All night long the good work goes on loosening the phlegm, soothing the inflamed membranes and opening up the air passages. Go to your druggist and ask for a small jar of Famous Forkola and begin the treatment at once. Thousands have used the Forkola treatment instead of nauseous internal dosing for Colds and Catarrh Sore Throat, Bronchitis and even incipient Pneumonia. You druggist or Evans' Drug Store can supply you—Advertisement.

LESS THAN HALF COUNTY'S QUOTA IS SUBSCRIBED

With less than half of the county's quota for the third Liberty loan reported subscribed Wednesday night, the workers on the various teams throughout the county set out today with redoubled efforts to raise the county's proportion before the time limit set on Saturday night.

The total amount of bonds reported sold up to Wednesday night was $461,750. The county quota is $977,050, divided equally between the city of Newark and the rest of the county. The time is getting short for Licking county to "go over the top," and with the teams working up to their limit all the time, it is necessary that every resident of the county shift a large share of this responsibility to himself by making his subscription as early and as large as is possible.

The teams have a large territory to cover and they will need all the assistance possible. If you have not already bought your bond, give the matter your immediate attention. Give us something that you can just as well do without and make your bond that much larger. It is up to each one of us to do even more than our "bit" to help the county raise and oversubscribe its quota.

The campaign is a patriotic one and in addition it is a campaign of pride to see that the county does not fall down on its share of the financial burden of the great conflict. Newark and Licking county people are not going to fall behind in this matter. They have never yet brought up the rear in matters of national or civic pride and the present will be no exception to the rule. Make this Liberty loan drive your campaign. It's for you and your homes. Be a part of the great movement by investing all the money you possibly can in Liberty bonds. And, do it now!

SCHOOL OF LINE AT CAMP SHERMAN CLOSES NEXT WEEK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., April 18.—The school of the line here where hundreds of surplus officers assigned to duty with the division have been given post-graduate courses for the past three and one-half months will be closed next week and the officers returned to their organizations to train the new recruits who have been received here.

The officers have been given special training to fit them for open warfare. Practically 500 surplus officers of the division were sent to the school when it opened in January. So many have since been transferred to other duties that only about 200 officers are left in the school.

Officers are enthusiastic over the results obtained through the school. They ventured the opinion that the officers are as well trained as any junior officers in the country. Only one other similar school has been held in the country.

Practical problems of maneuvering are being given the four infantry regiments in camp. Situations are imagined and officers are given the problem of working them out with the entire regiments.

Special precautions are being taken to guard against sore feet among the men. Officers say the Ohio and western Pennsylvania selectives here are being given more marching this week than they have since they came to camp.

WILL ASSIST IN DETECTION OF TAX DODGERS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, April 18.—A post-season drive to get individuals and small business concerns to report payments of more than $300 made last year to any person or partnership, has been started by the internal revenue bureau. It now appears that thousands failed to file by April 1 these reports required by law for payments for rent, interest, salaries, wages, annuities, or other fixed or determinable gains.

Reports of payments for merchandise and payments to corporations, are not sought. Although there is no penalty for failing to make the reports, tax officials are appealing to the public to assist in gathering the information which may lead to detection of tax-dodgers, and uniform enforcement of the tax laws.

Among the institutions which have been found to be particularly neglectful of the $300 payment reports are churches, small merchants, chambers of commerce, associations and societies of various kinds, baseball clubs, theatrical companies, barbers, restaurant proprietors and parochial schools. Many individuals who paid more than $300 rent last year also neglected to report.

Attorneys, physicians, or other professional fees are to be included. Real estate rental agents are required to report the aggregate payments to landlords.

DENISON MAN WILL REPRESENT STATE

Governor Cox has requested a number of delegates to attend the meeting of the league to enforce peace, which will be held in Independence Hall, Philadelphia, Friday, May 17. Among those named from the various cities by the governor is Dr. C. W. Chamberlain of Denison University. William Howard Taft is president of the league.

VISCOUNT MILNER WAR SECRETARY IN BRITISH CABINET

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, April 18.—Viscount Milner has been appointed secretary of state of war in the British cabinet, according to Le Matin. The Earl of Derby, who has been war minister, the paper says, will come to Paris as ambassador in place of Lord Bertie, who retires.

Premier Clemenceau had a long conference last night with Lord Milner.

Alfred Milner, First Viscount Milner, has been a member of the British war cabinet without portfolio since December 10, 1916. The Earl of Derby has been at the head of the war office since the Lloyd George cabinet took office in December 1916. Previously he had been director of army recruiting and air minister.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

An interesting letter has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sullivan, 135 Wilson street, from their brother, Corporal Clarence "Bud" Westenhouser, who is with Co. L, 146th Inf., somewhere in France. The letter is as follows:

Somewhere in France, March 15, 1918. Evening 6:00.

Dear Mother and All:—

Will now try and write you a few lines to let you know I am well and still kicking. We sure have been having some grand weather. Hope the weather is as nice back there. Well before I go any farther I will ask you how mother is getting along and if she worries much, hope she doesn't worry, tell her not to because I am O. K. Well, how are all the rest, hope you are all O. K. and feeling as good as I am. We were in the trenches * * * days and came out O. K. We let the boss know that we were there to I suppose they are still cussing us, well, such is life in the trenches. I received several letters while I was up there, one was from you. I sure was glad to hear from you, and received one from you when we got out of the trenches. One was dated Feb. 14 and 18th. Was sure glad to hear that you were all well, hope you stay that way. I wish you would send me mother's picture, and why can't you all have your picture taken on a postal, that is, a group picture and send it to me, would just love to have one. Some of the boys went down in the field to play ball today and they had to come back to get their pay. L. company was supposed to play K. company but I guess it was called off. I sure have learned a lot of things since we came over here, hope it won't be long before it is over for that sure will be some day. Am sitting here writing by an electric light, what do you think of that, a chum and I rented a room. We have two beds and electric light and a wood stove, some life this army life. Ha, am glad to head that mother is getting her money. Tell her she doesn't need to worry about it because Helen will see that she gets it. Tell Tookie and Walter I said hello and kiss them for me. You asked me in your letter if I ever heard from Chalmers Montrose. No, I haven't. Tell Joe I said some hunter to get 2 rabbits in a season. Well, will close with love and best wishes to all. From your son, brother, uncle, Buddie.

Was so glad to hear you were all well.
